THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda. The state-of-the-art facility is located just west of the Oakland International Airport, about one mile from the team's former training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland and about three miles from the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

The 100,000-square foot facility houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker rooms, training facility, television and radio studios and media center.

Three full-sized practice fields are located on the property. The Silver and Black moved football and business operations into the facility in mid-June 1996 and in 1997, major improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present needs. In 2002, the Raiders installed FieldTurf, an all-weather, state-of-the-art synthetic turf.

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum in Oakland. The Coliseum opened on Sept. 18, 1966 with the Raiders playing host to the Kansas City Chiefs. The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and Alameda County.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 62,748 fans on Jan. 14, 2001, when the Raiders played host to the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Championship Game.

The Coliseum underwent a major renovation that began during the Raiders 1995 season. The remodeled Coliseum's capacity is now 63,132, including added suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities. The playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres. Originally known as the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, it was re-named Network Associates Coliseum in October 1998, then was re-named McAfee Coliseum in 2005. The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum reverted to its original name in 2008.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders — who began play in the American Football League in 1960 — enter their 51st year of professional football competition, including the last 40 as a member of the National Football League.

In five memorable decades — the 1960s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the 2000s — the Raiders have been dominant in professional football since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

During these Decades of Dominance, the Raiders have won an AFL Championship, four American Football Conference Championships, three World Championships of Professional Football, participated in five Super Bowls, played in 14 Championship Games, won or tied for 17 Division Championships, had 21 playoff seasons, finished 33 seasons at .500 or better and played in 40 postseason games.

Pro Football's Dynamic Organization placed first in the AFC West in 2000, 2001 and 2002 despite playing among the toughest schedules in the NFL in each of those seasons. With their appearance in Super Bowl XXXVII, the Raiders became the only NFL team to have had a season end in the Super Bowl in four different decades.

The Raiders are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s, the '80s and the 2000s and have won the most games of any original AFL franchise.

The Silver and Black are the only AFC team — and one of just two NFL teams (Minnesota) — to have a season that advanced to the conference championship game in each of the last five decades.

The Raiders are one of only two original AFL teams to have captured three World Championships of Professional Football with Super Bowl victories. The Raiders are one of only four AFC teams to have won more than one Super Bowl since 1980.

In road games, the Raiders have the best record in the AFC at 182-188-8. In their five Super Bowl appearances, the Raiders have been led by four different head coaches and started four different quarterbacks.

The Raiders are the last AFC Western Division team to go to the Super Bowl. With four postseason victories, the Raiders are one of only two AFC West teams to win more than one playoff game in the new millennium.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new AFL and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory. During those memorable 47 years in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders have won 401 league games, tied 11 and lost only 302.

"Commitment to Excellence" has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the new millennium as shown by their domination of pro football.

Seventeen of the great players who proudly wore the Silver and Black, as well as Owner-Leader Al Davis and legendary Head Coach John Madden, have been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. The Raiders have also produced five Pro Coaches of the Year.

In addition, 58 Pro Bowl players have made 172 Pro Bowl appearances representing the Silver and Black. In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970 through 2009 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 88-61-1 record against present National Football Conference rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970 — "Monday Night Football." The Raiders total domination of this prime-time television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 36-25-1 record in Monday night play. In the 39 years of this series, the Raiders are 15-7-0 in "Monday Night Football" games at home.

For their five decades — the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and now the 2000s — the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football will arise as they have in the '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and the new millennium. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE TRUE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS WILL CONTINUE IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS OWNER

An unyielding total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 47 years to the very top of the professional sports world.

In these memorable 47 years, the Raiders have had 28 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season. In 33 of those seasons, the Raiders earned a record of .500 or better.

Al Davis' six-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of The Oakland Raiders — is a standard that no one in the history of professional football can match for winning and excellence.

In April 1966, the then 36-year-old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL President and Buffalo Bills Owner Ralph Wilson as “a coaching genius and astute administrator.”

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six-year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two, 13-team conferences — the AFC and NFC — were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a “young coaching genius” by Sports Illustrated and “the most inventive mind in the country” by Scholastic Coach Magazine.

The Raiders — “picked to finish dead last” — thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record nine presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The nine great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell, Ted Hendricks and recently retired leading television football analyst John Madden.

Davis himself became enshrined on Aug. 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame by Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence "for his contributions to the men who played the game."

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Mass. and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, N.Y. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University. In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet," presented annually to "Individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football."

On Dec. 29, 1999, the Oakland Tribune and the Alameda Newspaper Group named Al Davis as the Bay Area's most significant sports figure of the 20th Century on a list that included such greats as Joe Montana, Willie Mays, Joe DiMaggio and Bill Russell. The Orange Bowl inducted Davis into its Hall of Fame in 2001.

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Va. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

In 1960, Head Coach Sid Gillman hired Davis as offensive end coach of the newly formed Los Angeles Chargers. After two Division Championships in just three years there, it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

Based on personal achievement, team achievement and contributions to the game, no one has had a more profound and lasting impact on professional football. In recognition of his status in pro football annals, NFL Films produced a film entitled, "AL DAVIS, NO. 1 FOR ALL TIME."

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings — awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII — are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

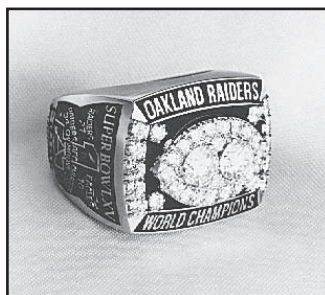

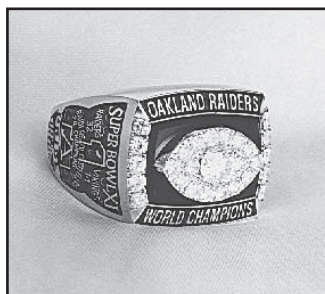

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Ill., whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders — white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on “massive excellence” that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XI ring design, featuring a large center diamond and 26, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Raiders Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach John Madden, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards artist Elliot Ingberg.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years and 33, five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20, five-point diamonds.

The ring was developed by Al Davis, Tom Flores, Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Marzullo.

RAIDERS COACHES

TOM CABLE Head Coach

Tom Cable is in his second full season as head coach of The Oakland Raiders and is in his fourth season overall with the Silver and Black.

In 2009, Cable led the Raiders to victories over two teams that qualified for the postseason as well as a road win over the defending Super Bowl champions. In addition, the Raiders recorded four dramatic come-from-behind victories in 2009 under Cable's direction.

Cable was named the 17th head coach of The Oakland Raiders by Owner Al Davis on Feb. 3, 2009. Cable served as the interim head coach for 12 games of the 2008 season following his appointment on Sept. 30, 2008 and led the Raiders to victories in the campaign's final two games.

In addition to his duties as head coach, Cable tutored an offensive line that helped the Raiders rank 10th in the NFL in rushing in 2008.

"He was steadfast in his belief for the Raiders, steadfast in his passion for the Raiders," Davis said. Cable, who has 23 years of coaching experience, including four as a head coach at the college level, joined the Raiders in 2007 as the offensive line coach. In 2007, Cable coached a Raiders offensive line that contributed to the Silver and Black finishing sixth in the NFL in both rushing and Inside-the-20 touchdown percentage.

"I'm honored to have the privilege and the responsibility to be the head coach of the Oakland Raiders," Cable said while being introduced as permanent head coach of the Silver and Black. "I look forward to getting to work and working hard to bringing a championship to Oakland. It is something that is dear to all of us, dear to the city and it is something that we will set out to do beginning now."

Cable, 45, spent the 2006 season as offensive line coach for Atlanta, where he tutored a unit that was the driving force behind helping the Falcons lead the NFL in rushing. From 2004-05, Cable was both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at UCLA, where he helped develop one of the most productive offensive units in the nation. In 2005, Cable coordinated a UCLA offense that averaged 431 yards in total offense per game while earning 10 wins and a bowl berth. In 2004, the Bruin offense under Cable improved by more than 1,000 yards from the previous season while averaging 410 yards per game.

Cable was head coach of the University of Idaho from 2000-03. During his tenure at Idaho, his teams averaged 424.1 yards of total offense per game. Cable also spent two years at the University of Colorado. In 1998, he served as the offensive line coach and the following year was promoted to offensive coordinator. Under his direction, the Buffaloes offense was ranked 14th in the nation in 1999, averaging 424.9 yards per game.

He spent six seasons (1992-97) as offensive line coach at the University of California, where he tutored four first team All-Pac-10 selections, including Jeremy Newberry, who played for the Raiders in 2007. Cable began his coaching career at his alma mater, serving as a graduate assistant at Idaho in 1987 and 1988. He was a graduate assistant at San Diego State in 1989, defensive line coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and offensive line coach at Nevada-Las Vegas in 1991.

The Merced, Calif. native played four years at Idaho, three as a starting guard, and spent one season with the Indianapolis Colts before beginning his coaching career. Cable and his wife Carol have four children: Ryan, Amanda, Alex and Zach.

HUE JACKSON

Offensive Coordinator

Hue Jackson joins The Oakland Raiders in 2010 as offensive coordinator. Jackson has 24 years of coaching experience in college and professional football and has been an offensive coordinator at both levels. The 44-year-old Jackson spent the past two seasons as Baltimore's quarterbacks coach and helped the Ravens advance to the post-season in 2008 and 2009. In 2008, Jackson tutored Joe Flacco, who became the first rookie quarterback to win two playoff games in NFL history as the Ravens advanced to the AFC Championship Game. In 2007, Jackson was an NFL offensive coordinator for the second time when he served in that capacity for the Atlanta Falcons. He was offensive coordinator for the Washington Redskins in 2003 and also held that post twice at the college level — the University of Southern California from 1997-00 and the University of California in 1996. Under Jackson's tutelage in Cincinnati (2004-06), Chad Ochocinco and T.J. Houshmandzadeh became one of the most prolific wide receiving tandems in NFL history. In 2006, as wide receivers coach for Cincinnati, Ochocinco (1,369 yards) and Houshmandzadeh (1,081) became the first pair of Bengals to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark in a single season. Ochocinco led the NFL in receiving yards and for the fourth consecutive season, he topped the AFC in yardage. It marked the first time a player had led his conference in receiving yards in four straight seasons. He established an NFL record for most receiving yards in consecutive games (450) and a Bengals record for most single-game receiving yards (260 against Chargers). The Pro Bowl receiver also set the top four marks for receiving yards in a single season. Houshmandzadeh peaked in Jackson's final year when he totaled then-career highs (90 receptions and 1,081 yards). In 2005 under Jackson, the Ochocinco-Houshmandzadeh tandem combined to total 175 receptions for 2,388 yards, while helping the team secure the AFC North title and a playoff berth for the first time in a decade. In Washington, Jackson was promoted to offensive coordinator by Head Coach Steve Spurrier in 2003 and handled team's offensive play-calling, becoming the only coach to perform that duty other than Spurrier. In 2002, with Jackson as running backs coach, Pro Bowl RB Stephen Davis was on pace for another 1,000-yard rushing season before suffering a season-ending injury. Davis posted a career-high 1,432 rushing yards in 2001. Jackson served as USC's offensive coordinator from 1997-00, helping to recruit and develop players, including QB Carson Palmer, with whom he was reunited with in Cincinnati (Palmer was the NFL's No. 1-overall draft pick by the Bengals in 2003). As Cal's offensive coordinator in 1996, Jackson helped lead the Golden Bears to an Aloha Bowl berth. He coached running backs at Arizona State from 1992-95. He was a minority fellowship coaching intern in training camp with the Washington Redskins in 1995, the Arizona Cardinals in 1992 and the Los Angeles Rams in 1990. From 1990-91, Jackson was running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Cal State Fullerton. He gained pro coaching experience as a running backs/wide receivers/special teams coach for the London Monarchs of the World League of American Football in the spring. Jackson launched his career as a running backs coach at Pacific from 1987-89. As a quarterback at Pacific from 1985-86, Jackson threw for 2,544 yards and 19 TDs. He also lettered in basketball in 1986 and earned his degree in Physical Education. Jackson is a Los Angeles native who was a star quarterback at Dorsey High School in his hometown, where he also lettered in basketball. Jackson and Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable previously worked together on two college staffs — as assistants at Cal State Fullerton in 1990 and at the University of California in 1996.

JOHN MARSHALL

Defensive Coordinator

John Marshall, who enters his 31st season as an NFL assistant coach, is in his second season with The Oakland Raiders as defensive coordinator. In 2009, Marshall coached a unit that ranked ninth in the NFL in pass defense (220.7 ypg.) and tied for 11th in the league in sacks (37.0). Before joining the Raiders, Marshall served in the same capacity with the Seattle Seahawks. Since beginning his coaching career in 1967, Marshall has helped coach two Super Bowl Champions and one National Champion at the collegiate level. Since entering the NFL ranks in 1980, Marshall has assumed the defensive coordinator role five times: Atlanta (1983-85), San Francisco (1997-98), Carolina (1999-01), Seattle (2006-08) and now with the Raiders. Marshall began his tenure with the Seahawks as linebackers coach from 2003-05 before moving to defensive coordinator. He helped tutor a defense that ranked second in the NFL in sacks from 2005-07 with 136. In 2007, Marshall's defense led the NFL in touchdown passes allowed (15) and ranked fourth in the NFL with 20 interceptions. His defensive unit boasted four Pro Bowlers and two Associated Press First Team All-Pros. Two players earned Pro Bowl selections under Marshall's tutelage in 2006 and one player earned a Pro Bowl spot in 2005. Marshall was elevated to the defensive coordinator position before the 2005 season. His defense led the NFL with 50 sacks, allowed only one 100-yard rusher, finished second in the NFL in red zone defense (40.4 percent) and rushing touchdowns allowed (five) en route to a berth in Super Bowl XL. Marshall joined the Seahawks after one season as an assistant defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions in 2002. Before Detroit, Marshall spent three seasons (1999-01) as the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers. His defense ranked fourth in the NFL with 105 takeaways over his three-year tenure. Before Carolina, Marshall was part of two Super Bowl squads in San Francisco from 1989-98, working with the defensive line from 1989-93, linebackers from 1994-96 and two years as defensive coordinator from 1997-98. As defensive coordinator in 1997, he spearheaded the NFL's top-rated defense, second against the rush and pass and helped send five players to the Pro Bowl. Marshall coached nearly a decade in the NFL before going to San Francisco, starting as the Green Bay Packers special teams coach in 1980 and taking over as linebackers coach in 1981. He served as defensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons from 1983-85 and coached the defensive line of the Indianapolis Colts from 1986-88. Marshall's coaching career started as an assistant at Hancock (Calif.) Junior College in 1967 before holding several positions for the University of Oregon from 1968-76: freshman assistant coach (1968), freshman head coach (1969-71) and offensive line coach (1972-76). He then moved to the University of Southern California, where he coached linebackers from 1977-79 and helped lead the Trojans to two Rose Bowl victories and the 1978 National Championship. In 1964, Marshall began his college playing career at Washington State before having his playing career cut short due to a neck injury. He went on to major in Health Education at the University of Oregon in 1969. Marshall and his wife, Becky, have two daughters, Sarah and Meg.

WILLIE BROWN

Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown is in his 40th year with the Raiders and 16th season as director of squad development. Brown coached the Raiders for the past 15 straight seasons. He was secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while serving as director of squad development. Brown was an assistant at Long Beach State before taking over as head coach in 1991. In 1994, he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in Education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with Houston. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders. He played in 205 games and was chosen for three AFL All-Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39, holds the Super Bowl record for the longest interception return with a 75-yard TD in Super Bowl XI and is one of only two players to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. He intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-year All-Star team. The Yazoo City, Miss. native starred at Grambling from 1959-62 and is a member of the Louisiana Sports, Grambling State, Southwestern Athletic Conference, Mississippi Sports, Black Sports and Bay Area Sports Halls of Fame. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1984. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

JOHN FASSEL

Special Teams Coordinator

John Fassel is in his third year with the Raiders coaching staff, the second in his current capacity. In 2009, under Fassel's tutelage, punter Shane Lechler earned a Pro Bowl spot and led the NFL with a Raider record 51.1-yard average per attempt (just shy of Sammy Baugh's NFL record). His net average of 43.9 yards per punt also led the NFL and surpassed his own record set in 2008. In addition, kicker Sebastian Janikowski achieved a career single-season high 89.7 field goal percentage, missing only three attempts (47, 57 and 66 yards). Janikowski also converted on the third-longest field goal in NFL history, a Raiders team record 61-yarder at Cleveland last December. Under Fassel's direction, long snapper Jon Condo earned his first Pro Bowl berth as a "need" player following the 2009 season. Fassel served in a special teams quality control role in 2008, where he helped tutor one of the top units in the NFL as the Raiders ranked ninth in the league in kickoff returns (receiving team) with an average start of 28.8 and 10th in the league in kickoff coverage (kicking team) with a 26.4 average start for opponents. As for the punt return unit, he helped guide the Raiders to the second-best punt return average in the NFL at 13 yards per return. In addition, Fassel's unit contributed five touchdowns on returns and included Lechler, who led the NFL with a 41.2 net punting average and earned a Pro Bowl berth. From 2005-07, Fassel was Baltimore's assistant special teams coach. He helped the Ravens to top-10 finishes in punt and kickoff return average in 2006 and 2007 and his units returned five kicks for touchdowns in two seasons. From 2003-04, he was the head coach and assistant athletic director at New Mexico Highlands University. Fassel also served six months as the school's interim athletic director and taught undergraduate and graduate courses. In 1999 and 2001, Fassel coached wide receivers and recruited for Bucknell. In Spring 2000, Fassel was the strength and conditioning and wide receivers coach for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe. After graduating from Weber State in 1999 with a degree in Exercise Science, Fassel signed as a rookie free agent wide receiver with the Indianapolis Colts. He earned a master's degree in Athletic Administration at Idaho State University, where he was a graduate assistant and sports science instructor from 2000-01. Fassel is also a triathlete who has finished three Ironman distance triathlons. His father, Jim, is a longtime NFL assistant and head coach who served as an assistant with the Raiders in 1995. The Fassel family includes wife Elizabeth.

PAUL HACKETT

Quarterbacks

Paul Hackett is in his third year on the Raiders staff and second as quarterbacks coach. Hackett, who assisted the Raiders coaching staff with special projects in 2008, enters his 41st season as a coach at the college and NFL levels. Hackett has served on a Super Bowl and an NCAA National Championship staff during his career. He has been with four division winners as an NFL offensive coordinator, helping lead teams to seven playoff appearances and a 90-54 record in nine seasons. In his last 14 seasons as an NFL assistant coach, Hackett helped nine teams reach the playoffs. Before coming to Oakland, Hackett was quarterbacks coach at Tampa Bay from 2005-07 and helped the Buccaneers to two playoff appearances. Hackett was the New York Jets offensive coordinator from 2001-04, helping the Jets make the playoffs in three of his four seasons. Hackett joined the Jets after three seasons as head coach for the University of Southern California (1998-00). Before USC, Hackett was Kansas City's offensive coordinator (1993-97). Hackett also spent four years at the University of Pittsburgh (1989-92), including three as head coach. He began his pro coaching career with Cleveland (1981-82) and later served as an assistant with San Francisco (1982-85) and Dallas (1986-88). Before entering the NFL, Hackett spent five years at USC (1976-80) as quarterbacks coach, wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. During his tenure, the Trojans won the 1978 National Championship and played in four bowl games, including three Rose Bowls. Hackett began his coaching career at his alma mater, UC Davis, in 1969 and later served as an assistant coach at California (1972-75). As a player, Hackett was a three-year starter at quarterback for UC Davis (1966-68). A graduate of Miramonte High School in Orinda, Calif., he and his wife Elizabeth have two sons, David and Nathaniel.

MIKE HALUCHAK

Linebackers

Mike Haluchak is in his second year as Raiders linebackers coach. The Concord, Calif. native has served 24 years as an assistant coach in the NFL, including four as linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns. In Cleveland, Haluchak developed a number of young linebackers including 2006 first round draft pick Kamerion Wimbley, who now plays for the Raiders. In 2008, Haluchak's unit helped the Cleveland defense rank 14th in the NFL against the pass and 12th in the league in defense inside the 20-yard line. Before his stint in Cleveland, Haluchak spent two seasons (2003-04) as linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. He joined Jacksonville from St. Louis, where he coached for three seasons (2000-02) and helped the Rams to an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI. Second round draft choice Tommy Polley was named to the NFL All-Rookie Team under Haluchak's guidance in 2000. Haluchak began his NFL coaching career with San Diego in 1986 and spent six seasons with the Chargers. He has also coached with the Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93), Washington Redskins (1994-96), and New York Giants (1997-99). During his 23 seasons in the NFL, Haluchak has coached three players to six Pro Bowl selections, including San Diego's Junior Seau (1991), Washington's Ken Harvey (1995-96) and New York's Jesse Armstead (1997-99). Haluchak was a high school coach in Southern California from 1972-75 and entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at USC from 1976-77. He moved to Cal State Fullerton in 1978 as the defensive backfield coach and his first tour as a linebackers coach was at Pacific (1979-80). Haluchak also coached at California (1981), North Carolina State (1982) and spent three seasons with the Oakland Invaders of the USFL (1983-85). He played linebacker and safety at USC and saw action in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan. He holds a degree in History from USC and a master's degree in Secondary Education from California Lutheran. Haluchak's wife's name is Carol.

ADAM HENRY

Tight Ends

Adam Henry is in his fourth year with the Raiders, the second in his present capacity, coaching the Silver and Black's tight ends. Last year, Henry coached a tight ends unit that included the team's leading receiver, Zach Miller, who logged career highs in receptions (66) and receiving yards (805). In 2009, Miller became the first Raiders tight end since Todd Christensen (1982-86) to lead the Raiders in receiving in back-to-back seasons. Henry spent his first two years with the Raiders as an offensive quality control assistant. Before joining the Raiders, Henry was an assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and receivers coach at McNeese State University. Henry spent 10 seasons at McNeese State, where he coached several NFL players, conference players of the year and the school's all-time leading receiver. One of his receivers was named the team's most valuable player for five seasons. Henry, 38, also served a coaching internship with Cleveland. The Beaumont, Texas native was an all-conference wide receiver at McNeese State and remains in the school's all-time top-10 among receivers. He signed with New Orleans as a free agent in 1994 and also spent training camp and the preseason with the Saints in 1995 and 1996. He was on the Saints practice squad in 1995. Henry has a master's degree in Education with an emphasis in Instructional Technology. He has three children: Darian, Kynidee and Ava.

SANJAY LAL

Wide Receivers

Sanjay Lal is in his fourth season with The Oakland Raiders, the second in his present capacity coaching wide receivers for the Silver and Black. Lal joined the Raiders in 2007 working with the wide receivers and operating as the offensive quality control assistant. In 2009, Lal tutored Darrius Heyward-Bey and Louis Murphy, the first rookie tandem to start at WR in the NFL since 2000. Before joining the Raiders, Lal spent three seasons as an offensive assistant-quarterbacks coach at Cal, following one season on the football staff at St. Mary's College as quarterbacks and strength, speed and conditioning coach. The Bears played in bowl games in each of Lal's seasons at Cal and captured a share of the school's first Pac-10 title (tied with USC) in 2006. He was the wide receivers coach at Los Medanos College (2003) and was passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach at Miramonte High (1996-02) when the school won five North Coast Section Championships and one state title, including a 13-0 record in 2001. Lal played wide receiver at the University of Washington and was a Husky Hall of Fame selection. He was on the Huskies 1992 National Championship team and a member of two Rose Bowl teams. Before transferring to Washington, he was a member of the 1989 UCLA Cotton Bowl Championship team. Lal signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in 1998 and was with the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe in 1999.

JIM MICHALCZIK

Offensive Line

Jim Michalczik is in his second year as Raiders offensive line coach. Michalczik has 19 seasons of college coaching experience, including seven at the University of California and a short stint as offensive coordinator at the University of Washington before joining the Raider staff. The Port Angeles, Wash. native was assistant head coach, co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Cal in 2008 and helped lead the Bears to a Bowl win over Miami (Fla.). Under his tutelage, center Alex Mack won two consecutive Morris Trophies, given to the top offensive and defensive linemen in the Pac-10 and was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. While at Cal, he mentored seven first team all-conference selections. In all, 24 Bears offensive linemen earned some level of All-Pac-10 honors during his tenure. Additionally, Cal produced seven 1,000-yard rushers, including one 2,000-yard rusher, in his seven seasons and were Conference Co-Champions in 2006. Before joining California in 2002, Michalczik spent three seasons as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach coordinator at Oregon State. In his first season at Corvallis, the Beavers completed their first winning season in 29 years. The following year, OSU went 11-1, tied for the Pac-10 Conference Championship and finished with the No. 4 spot in the final AP ranking. Michalczik was the offensive line coach at Montana State from 1992-98. From 1990-91, Michalczik was assistant defensive line coach on Dennis Erickson's coaching staff at Miami (Fla.) that won a share of the National Championship in his final season with the Hurricanes. Michalczik earned three letters as an offensive guard at Washington State and honorable mention All-America from The Sporting News. After completing his WSU career, he signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals. Michalczik and his wife Jennifer have two sons, Max and Chase.

CHRIS MORGAN

Assistant Offensive Line

Chris Morgan is in his second season with the Raiders as assistant offensive line coach. Morgan, 33, was an offensive lineman at the University of Colorado, where he was tutored by Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable. He also served as an offensive graduate assistant while Cable was head coach at the University of Idaho in 2003, earning a master's degree in Educational Leadership. Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High in Houston. Before his stint as a graduate assistant at Idaho, Morgan was an assistant at Copperas Cove High School in Copperas from 2001-02. As a prep coach, Morgan tutored more than a dozen players who have gone on to play at NCAA FBS institutions. Morgan played guard at Colorado from 1995-99, helping the Buffaloes to a 4-0 record in bowl games including victories in the Cotton, Holiday, Aloha and Insight Bowls. He was named the program's most improved offensive player in 1998. A native of Killeen, Morgan helped Killeen High School to the Texas 5A-1 State Championship in 1991. Morgan and his wife, Holly, have a daughter.

BRAD ROLL

Strength and Conditioning

Brad Roll is in his third season with The Oakland Raiders as strength and conditioning coach. Roll, who has 17 years of pro coaching experience, spent 2006-07 with the St. Louis Rams after two years as strength and conditioning coordinator for the Buffalo Bills. He spent eight seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Miami Dolphins (1996-03). From 1993-95, Roll was the head strength coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers after serving as strength and conditioning coach at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1989-92, when the Hurricanes won two National Championships. Roll was strength and conditioning coach at Kansas from 1987-88, working closely with the National Championship basketball team in 1988. He worked at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1981-86 after beginning his coaching career in 1980 as a graduate assistant at Stephen F. Austin. The Houston native played center in football at Blinn (Texas) Junior College and Stephen F. Austin, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in Education. He also studied at the Moscow (Russia) Sports Institute during the summers of 1985 and 1986, as well as with the German Olympic weightlifting coaching and training staff in Leipzig in 1987. In 2003, Roll was inducted into the professional category of the USA Strength & Conditioning Coaches Hall of Fame and in 2004, he was inducted into the Stephen F. Austin Ring of Honor. He serves on the executive committee of the NFL Coaches Association.

KEVIN ROSS

Defensive Backs

Kevin Ross, who played defensive back in the NFL for more than a decade, is in his first year with the Raiders. Ross has five years of coaching experience in the NFL and last year was an assistant for the New York franchise in the United Football League. From 2007-08, Ross assisted in coaching defensive backs for San Diego. In 2007, the Chargers led the NFL in interceptions during both the regular season (30) and postseason (six). Ross was secondary coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2003-05. Ross played defensive back for 14 seasons (1984-97) and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection. He was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs in the seventh round of the 1984 NFL Draft and as a rookie had a career-high six interceptions to earn consensus All-Rookie honors. He played 11 seasons in Kansas City (1984-93 and 1997), earning Pro Bowl honors in 1989 and 1990. He played two seasons in Atlanta (1994-95) and one with San Diego. He retired from the NFL in 1997 with 1,142 tackles, 38 interceptions and two touchdowns. Ross then spent four years coaching high school football, two at Camden High School (1999-00) and two at Woodrow Wilson High (2001-02) in his native Camden, N.J. In 2002, he went to training camp with the Vikings as part of the NFL's Minority Fellowship Coaching Internship Program and in 2003 he was hired as Minnesota's assistant secondary coach. In his first season in Minnesota, the Vikings ranked second in the NFL with 28 interceptions. In Ross' second season in Minnesota, the Vikings advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. Ross was an all-state and all-conference linebacker and running back at Paulsboro (N.J.) High School and a four-year letterman at Temple. Ross has three daughters (Celia, Cherrille and Kassidy) and two sons (Jovair and Kevin Jr.).

KELLY SKIPPER

Running Backs

Kelly Skipper is in his fourth season with the Raiders, the second in his present capacity after two years as tight ends coach. Skipper, 43, has 22 years of coaching experience and has served as an offensive coordinator at the NCAA Division I level. In 2009, Raiders running backs averaged more than four yards per carry under Skipper's coaching. Under Skipper's guidance in 2008, tight end Zach Miller led the Raiders in receptions (56) and receiving yards (778) to place eighth in the NFL among tight ends. Skipper tutored a Raider tight ends unit in 2007 that included Miller, who led all rookie tight ends in receptions and ranked fourth in the NFL among all rookie pass catchers with 44. Before joining the Raiders, Skipper spent four seasons coaching running backs and special teams at Washington State. He also spent two summers, one with Seattle and one with Washington, as an NFL minority fellowship coaching intern. From 1998-02, Skipper was on the coaching staff at UCLA, where he was offensive coordinator from 2001-02. He has tutored a number of players who went on to the NFL — including Lorenzo Neal, Michael Pittman and DeShaun Foster. Skipper also coached Jerome Harrison, who broke Washington State's single season rushing record after running for 1,900 yards. He was an assistant at Fresno State, his alma mater, from 1989-97, beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time assistant in 1991. He handled running backs, return specialists and served as recruiting coordinator on the Bulldog staff. Skipper's father, Jim, is a longtime NFL assistant and was head coach of the Xtreme Football League's San Francisco Demons. The Brawley, Calif. native played running back at Fresno State and rushed for 2,237 career yards to rank on the Bulldog top-10 list. He also scored 28 touchdowns during his college career as Fresno State went 36-9-1. As a senior, Skipper was a first team All-Big West running back and earned Associated Press All-America honorable mention honors. He earned a degree in Business from Fresno State in 1989. He was inducted into his high school's — Churchill in Eugene, Ore. — Hall of Fame in 2008. Skipper and his wife, Mary, have two children, Kaelen and Darius.

TED TOLLNER

Passing Game Coordinator

Veteran coach Ted Tollner joined The Oakland Raiders coaching staff in 2009 as passing game coordinator. Tollner — who has 47 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and pro levels — spent 2007-08 as an offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach in his second stint with the San Francisco 49ers. He joined the 49ers as quarterbacks coach in 2002 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2004. In 2005, Tollner joined the Detroit Lions coaching staff, where he served as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach. Tollner was the Buffalo Bills wide receivers coach from 1987-88, the San Diego Chargers offensive coordinator from 1989-91 and the quarterbacks coach for the Los Angeles (now St. Louis) Rams from 1992-93. Tollner joined the staff at USC in 1982 and became head coach in 1983, posting a 26-20-1 record from 1983-86 and led the Trojans to three straight bowl appearances. Tollner was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year after leading the Trojans to the conference title and a win in the 1985 Rose Bowl. Tollner also led USC to appearances in the Aloha and Citrus Bowls. In 1994, he returned to San Diego State and was head coach for eight years through 2001. The former Cal Poly quarterback coached at the College of San Mateo from 1968-72 and was the offensive coordinator at San Diego State from 1973-80. In 1981, Tollner tutored quarterbacks at BYU. He began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator (and later head coach) at Woodside High School in Redwood City, Calif. in 1963. Tollner and his wife Barbara have three children — Linda, Tammy and Bruce — and 10 grandchildren.

LIONEL WASHINGTON

Defensive Backs

Lionel Washington, who played cornerback for nine seasons with the Raiders from 1987-94 and 1997, returns for a second season tutoring defensive backs. Washington is in his 27th year in the NFL as a player or coach. Cornerback Nnamdi Asomugha earned a Pro Bowl spot, safety Tyvon Branch broke the 100-tackle mark (124, which led all NFL DBs) and CB Chris Johnson led the team in passes defended (18) in 2009 under Washington's coaching. Before coming to Oakland, he spent 10 seasons with the Green Bay Packers tutoring defensive backs. Packer cornerbacks Al Harris and former Raider Charles Woodson earned Pro Bowls berths under Washington's tutelage. In 2005, Washington's defensive backs helped Green Bay lead the league in fewest passing yards allowed per game (167.5) as well as fewest passing first downs (143). Washington entered the NFL in 1983 as a fourth round choice of the St. Louis (now Arizona) Cardinals out of Tulane. He played cornerback in the NFL for 15 seasons, one of the longest playing careers for a defensive back in pro football history. He played in 205 NFL games with 165 starts and recorded 37 interceptions, returning four for touchdowns. In his career, Washington intercepted at least one pass in 13 of his 15 pro seasons, with at least three in five different years, including a career-high eight as a rookie in 1983. After playing four years with the Cardinals (1983-86), Washington was traded to the Los Angeles Raiders in 1987 and played for the Silver and Black through 1994. He spent two years with the Broncos before returning to the Raiders in 1997 for one final season. Washington is the father of Deron, a professional basketball player who was selected in the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons following a stellar college career at Virginia Tech. Washington and his wife Karen also have two daughters: Lakaia and Jordan.

MIKE WAUFLE

Defensive Line

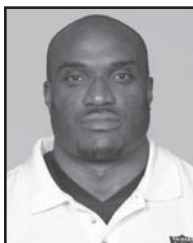

Mike Waufle returns for his second stint with the Raiders after spending the past six years as defensive line coach for the New York Giants. Waufle served in the same capacity for the Silver and Black from 1998-03. He has an outstanding record of success as a defensive line coach and has participated in Super Bowls with the Raiders and Giants and has tutored six All-Pro performers in Oakland and with the Giants. The Giants Super Bowl victory over New England featured dominating defensive line play. Waufle was defensive line coach at the University of California at Berkeley for six years. He and Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable spent six years together at the University of California. While an assistant at Cal, Waufle was also recruiting coordinator. Waufle helped develop a number of NFL defensive linemen, including two first rounders in 1996 — Duane Clemons and Regan Upshaw, who went on to play for the Raiders — during his coaching career at Cal. Waufle was defensive line coach at Oregon State from 1990-91 and at UCLA in 1989. He served as defensive line and special teams coach for former Raiders assistant Jim Sweeney's Fresno State staff from 1985-88. From 1980-84, he was an assistant at Utah State, his alma mater, working one season as secondary coach, two years as offensive line coach and two seasons as defensive line coach. The Hornell, N.Y. native began his coaching career at Alfred University in New York. After serving three years in the United States Marine Corps, Waufle played at Bakersfield Junior College, where the football team won the junior college national title and played in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1976. He then played on the defensive line at Utah State, where he was named captain as a senior. The Waufle family includes his wife Kathy and two daughters, Michele and Marsha.

RAIDERS PLAYER PERSONNEL

CALVIN BRANCH

Player Personnel

Calvin Branch first joined the Raiders as a sixth round pick in 1997 out of Colorado State. He played defensive back and was a valuable member of the Silver and Black's special teams from 1997-01. The Louisville, Ky. native also played in NFL Europe in 2002. Branch began his college career at Iowa State as a running back before transferring to Colorado State, where he ranked third in the nation in scoring (132 points) as a senior. His wife's name is Michele. His brother, Colin, also played defensive back in the NFL for the Carolina Panthers.

ANGELO COIA

Player Personnel

Former NFL standout wide receiver, Angelo Coia is now in his 26th season with the Raiders. Coia, 72, played in the NFL from 1960-66 with Chicago, Washington and Atlanta. Player Personnel

Kent McCloughan is in his 45th season with the Raiders, first as a player and now as a scout. The Broken Bow, Neb. native began scouting in 1972 after retiring. He was a standout cornerback for the Raiders from 1965-70, earning All-AFL honors in 1966 and 1967 and played for the Raiders in Super Bowl II. He attended Nebraska, where he played offense and defense, leading the Big Eight in scoring as a senior. McCloughan, 66, attended Broken Bow High and was all-state in basketball and All-America in both football and track and set a state record in the 220. McCloughan and his wife Elnora have three sons — including David, who played in the NFL, and Scot, both of whom were player personnel executives for the San Francisco 49ers.

KEITH ROWEN

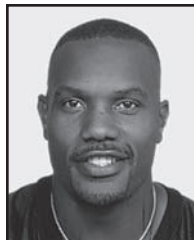

Player Personnel

Keith Rowen is in his third year in player personnel with the Raiders and his fifth season overall with the Silver and Black. Rowen, who coached offensive line for the Raiders from 1997-98, was tight ends coach for Atlanta in 2007. He also coached tight ends as well as offensive line and special teams for the Falcons from 1990-93. He was offensive coordinator for Arizona from 2005-06 and guided the Cardinals to the NFL's top rated passing offense in 2005. He coached tight ends for Kansas City from 1999-04 and the Minnesota Vikings offensive line from 1994-96. He was a three-year letterman at Stanford and was drafted by Philadelphia as an offensive lineman. Rowen began his coaching career at Stanford in 1975 and coached offensive line at Long Beach State (1978) and Arizona (1974-77). He coached the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers from 1983-84 before joining Cleveland as running backs coach for one season. He then coached offensive line/special teams for Indianapolis from 1985-88 before spending a season with New England. Rowen, whose father, Vic, was a legendary coach at San Francisco State, holds a master's from Stanford and a doctorate from the University of Southern California. His family includes wife Kimberly and four children: Mande, Holly, Kelly and Michael.

WILLIAM THOMAS

Player Personnel

William Thomas, who played 11 seasons in the NFL including his last two with the Raiders, re-joined the Silver and Black in 2008. Before re-joining the Raiders, Thomas was on the coaching staff at La Salle University as a volunteer assistant working with linebackers. Thomas entered the NFL as a fourth round pick by Philadelphia in 1991 and spent nine seasons with the Eagles. He ended his career with 37 sacks and 27 interceptions and was a two-time Pro Bowler (1995-96). Thomas was the Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an All-American honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks. As a junior, he was All-American honorable mention after finishing second on the team with 8.5 sacks. A three-year starter, he played his final two seasons at linebacker after beginning as a free safety. Thomas was an all-conference defensive back as a senior while also seeing time on offense at Palo Duro High School in Amarillo, Texas. He was a sprinter in track and a member of the school's relay team. He's married with three children.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

The Oakland Raiders announced a multi-year agreement in March for CBS RADIO San Francisco's LIVE 105 (105.3 KITS-FM) to broadcast play-by-play coverage of the team's preseason, regular season and postseason games. Listeners can hear the games on-air and in HD quality through HD Radio receivers in the Bay Area.

In addition to LIVE 105's coverage, CBS RADIO San Francisco's KFRC-AM 1550 will simulcast games. The station will offer listeners a wealth of Raiders-related content, including extensive pre- and post-game programming designed to both entertain and engage the Raider Nation.

The exclusive agreement was negotiated by Compass Media Networks, owner and syndicator of the broadcast rights for all Oakland Raiders English language broadcasts.

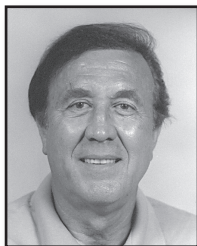

Greg Papa returns for his 14th season broadcasting the Silver and Black. Papa currently hosts the "Chronicle Live" television show on Comcast SportsNet Bay Area and has previously served as the radio and television voice of the Oakland Athletics and San Francisco Giants. Papa got his start in broadcasting in 1984 as the Indiana Pacers back-up announcer and in 1986, did play-by-play for the Golden State Warriors.

Papa will once again team up with former Raiders quarterback and Head Coach Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as a Raiders assistant coach in Super Bowl XI and as a head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

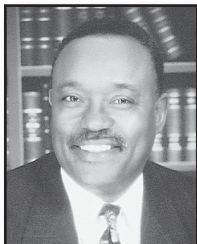

Raiders Legends George Atkinson and David Humm will again collaborate on the pre and postgame shows.

RAIDERS SPANISH RADIO

Raiders fans can listen to veteran broadcasters Ambrosio Rico and Fernando Arias call the action on KZSF 1370 AM — “La Kaliente” — the official flagship Spanish radio station for the Oakland Raiders 2010 season.

La Kaliente is a full-power radio station based in San Jose and covers the entire Bay Area. One of the most listened to radio stations in the Bay Area for its variety of programming, air personalities and its format content which is Hispanic Regional Mexican, La Kaliente has almost 100 hours of sports shows per month, plus talk shows and music. La Kaliente is also the official station of Chivas Mexican Championship Soccer Team, broadcasting all of their games live directly from Mexico.

Rico returns for his sixth season and second stint of broadcasting Raiders football in Spanish. He previously served as radio broadcaster in Spanish for Raider games from 2001-05. The Mexico City native played football for 10 seasons as a defensive end in both high school and at the University of Mexico, where he graduated with a degree in Sports Medicine. He also served as an assistant coach at the high school level in México City for two seasons and as a high school head athletic trainer for one season. Rico also served as an athletic trainer for a semi-professional soccer team based in San Francisco. In addition, Rico previously was on the Spanish radio broadcasting team for the San Francisco 49ers.

Arias is a longtime Bay Area resident and native of Guanajuato, Mexico. He attended high school in México City and went to college at City College of San Francisco. Arias has a broad array of broadcasting experience, having served as a radio personality in the Bay Area for KIQI and as a sports anchor on television for KBI, Channel 30. Arias, who has worked a number of Raiders games, also served as commentator for football with the San Francisco 49ers and for baseball with the Oakland Athletics. He also has broadcast NFL games in SAP for CBS, was an entertainment reporter and has interviewed celebrities such as Ricky Martin and Placido Domingo.

RAIDERS IN NAVAJO

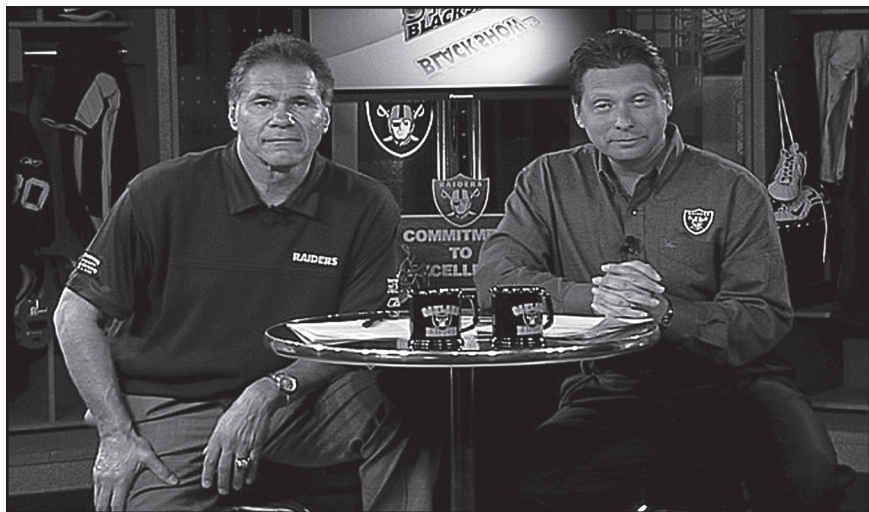

The Oakland Raiders will broadcast one 2010 home game in Navajo through an agreement with KTNN 660 AM. The Raiders have had 11 games broadcast in Navajo over the past five seasons and will continue the tradition during the 2010 campaign.

The first Raider game to be broadcast in Navajo was in 2005 and was the first of two home contests featured that season. After two home games were again broadcast in 2006, an all-time high four games were broadcast live in Navajo from the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum in 2007. Two games were broadcast by KTNN in 2008 and last season's contest against Kansas City was the 11th Raider home game to be covered in Navajo. The date and opponent for the 2010 broadcast will be announced early in the season.

KTNN, “The Voice of the Navajo Nation,” broadcasts a 50,000-watt clear channel signal from its Window Rock, Ariz. studio that reaches the entire western United States and Northern Mexico.

RAIDERS TV

JIM PLUNKETT AND GREG PAPA

Silver and Black Productions, the Raiders Emmy Award-winning in-house television production operation, provides viewers with innovative, cutting edge and behind-the-scenes content devoted solely to The Oakland Raiders. Two dynamic television shows air in the Bay Area as well as in additional television outlets throughout California, Oregon, and Nevada. These shows feature the personalities that make up the NFL's most dynamic organization.

In 2010, popular radio personality JT the Brick will again join the Raiders television broadcasting team for the preseason. JT the Brick will be joined with The Voice of the Oakland Raiders, Greg Papa, two-time Super Bowl-winning Head Coach Tom Flores, Super Bowl XV MVP Jim Plunkett and Super Bowl XI-winning defensive back George Atkinson. The cast will not only provide inside analysis of the Raiders as they make final preparations for the season, but relive the great moments in Raiders history that make up the fabric of this organization.

"The Silver and Black Show" consists of an in-depth, comprehensive, week-by-week analysis of the Raiders throughout the 2010 NFL season. The show also offers a retrospective look at the previous week's Raider game and a breakdown of the upcoming contest with a look at the matchups. Features on players past and present are part of the cutting-edge program profiling the Silver and Black. Papa hosts the half-hour show alongside Plunkett.

"The Raiders Report" is a half-hour show which combines analysis and a behind-the-scenes look at the Oakland Raiders hosted by JT the Brick with further analysis from Papa and Plunkett. "The Raiders Report" focuses on extensive, in-depth pieces featuring the Team of the Decades. Both shows originate from Silver and Black Productions state-of-the-art production facility located within the Raiders 100,000-square foot Alameda facility. Archived episodes can be found online at www.raiders.com.

The Raiders were one of the first professional sports teams to launch an official web site when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top online destinations in sports.

Raiders.com also offers original and translated content in Spanish, Chinese, German, Japanese and Tagalog. The official web site of the Silver and Black is the first and only official team web site in the NFL to offer original content in six different languages.

Raiders.com continues to provide exclusive video interviews, comprehensive photography, official press releases, transactions, player biographies, profiles on current and former players and team personnel, press conference video and more.

During games, fans can access the Raiders.com Game Center and check out live updates, view action photos and listen to a live audio stream from the Raiders flagship radio station — Live 105 (KITS, 105.3 FM). Comprehensive game recaps, postgame press conferences and complete game statistics are available after each game.

In addition, complete NFL Draft, team mini-camp, training camp and Raiderette coverage can be found at www.raiders.com. In 2010, The Official Web Site of The Oakland Raiders — www.raiders.com — will continue to use cutting edge technology to provide the Raider Nation with news, information, team history and entertainment, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at the Silver and Black.

THE RAIDER IMAGE

THE RAIDER IMAGE, LLC (The Image) is the official team shop of The Oakland Raiders. All stores are owned and operated by The Oakland Raiders out of the team's headquarters in Alameda. The Image began as a retail catalog while the team was in Los Angeles.

In addition, The Image currently operates 13 brick and mortar locations throughout California. The Raider Image online store opened for business in September 1999 on the Raiders official web site, Raiders.com.

The Image e-commerce store provides the best selection of Raider merchandise to Raider fans around the world. In August 2000, the Raiders followed up their Internet success with their first store located in Southland Mall in Hayward, giving Bay Area fans an opportunity to shop in a store dedicated to Raiders merchandise.

There are four Bay Area Raider Image locations — including Hegenberger Gateway in Oakland, Oakridge Mall in San Jose, Sunvalley Mall in Concord and Southland Mall in Hayward. The Image has also expanded outside of the Bay Area with stores in Arden Fair Mall in Sacramento, Fashion Fair Mall in Fresno, Weberstown Mall in Stockton, Solano Mall in Fairfield and Roseville Galleria in Roseville. To serve our Southern California fans, locations were opened at Montebello Town Center, Ontario Mills and Moreno Valley Mall. In addition, The Image added a new twist with the June 2003 opening of its Signature Store at Universal City Walk in Universal City.

The successful chain of stores will continue to expand to meet the growing needs of Raider fans around the world.

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their 15th year of summer training in Napa, Calif. The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

The state-of-the-art facility located in the Napa Valley has two, 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field.

The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000-square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000-square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.

VISITING P.R.: 510-567-0704

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be issued to the Raiders Public Relations Department. The credential request can be faxed or emailed to raiderspr@raiders.com on outlet letterhead. Please mail any requests to: 2010 MEDIA CREDENTIALS, c/o Oakland Raiders, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda, Calif. 94502 or faxed to 510-864-5160. Media headshots can be emailed to raiderspr@raiders.com. All season-long requests must be received by Aug. 9, 2010 and all game-by-game requests must be received by Noon on the Monday prior to each home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Ron Little (ronlittle@coliseum.com) at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum at 510-383-4817 to secure locations.

MEDIA WILL CALL: The Media Will Call booth is located in a kiosk on the east side of the "F" parking area. Each media member must pick up their own individual credential and present corresponding photo identification. Photographers and videographers can retrieve appropriate sideline vests at the booth. Media Will Call will open three hours before the scheduled kickoff.

MEDIA ENTRANCE: The Media entrance is located on the Plaza Level between the West Side Club and West Side Customer Accommodations and will be clearly marked. Media credentials will not be honored at any other gate. All media must check in at the media entrance before entering the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. Individuals and their belongings will be searched upon entry into the stadium.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Individuals will need to present a valid credential to access the media dining room. The media dining room is located on Level One of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum and can be accessed via the press elevator.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. All media (photographers, videographers and sideline reporters) staying on the field during the game must wear a vest which can be obtained at Media Will Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Raiders Head Coach Tom Cable conducts his postgame news conference in the interview room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponent's head coach and selected players will be available in the interview room located adjacent to the visitor's locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on Level Three and can be accessed via the press elevator. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided. Game stats are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is needed, contact a member of the Raiders Public Relations staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.
